Wix website builder is a truly easy-to-use program that is designed to get you up and running with a professional-looking website in no time at all. You won't need to spend hours figuring out how to use the program, and you can get a basic site up and running within a few hours. The bad: Wix is not as feature-rich as some other products. There are a couple of things that are missing from Wix. It doesn't have a file-sharing option to import images, videos, or other media directly from your computer, and there isn't an automated backup feature. The ugly: The price. It's not cheap, but it is a good investment. Wix offers a one-month free trial, and then it costs $49.95 each month.

Because Wix has the lowest price and most extensive variety of templates on the market, it's a good choice for a small business that wants a website that looks professional. Website builder software for the home user. In terms of design and functionality, Wix is actually much like WordPress. But it is a lot easier to use and even more powerful. And you can do a lot more than you can do in WordPress. Wix is a terrific choice for a home user, especially if you want to build an HTML website. It's also nice to have the option of using it on a tablet. Wix is also a good choice for a small business that wants a solid website builder and a simple way to share their blog with the world. Powerful website builder software for the business user. If you're the kind of person who wants to build a robust website with lots of features and functionality, you need to look elsewhere. Wix is a good choice for a large business or corporation, but it's not exactly the best choice if you're looking for something that will allow you to build and customize an HTML website. The good: Powerful website builder. Wix is one of the best web design tools on the market, but you have to pay for the privilege. There are hundreds of website builders out there.
