So he started banging on the door of a Burnaby veterinary clinic, hoping a vet would let him play. “I was scared. I was worried,” says Tyger, a seven-year-old dachshund mix. “I was like, ‘Please don’t let me go home.’” His owner, Dr. John Horton, looked out the window and saw the dog trying to claw his way through the dog door. He had managed to get off the chain that kept him in his
